MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Foreign Broadcast Information Service

THROUGH : Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT : Monthly Report--Nicosia Bureau--March

I. GENERAL

A. Status of Bureau Relocation--The Archbishop of Cyprus has approved the draft lease on the bureau's new site; the lease will be signed once clear title to the site is obtained and registered. Meanwhile, plans for the new bureau supplied by headquarters have been passed to local architects/engineers, who are to provide initial cost figures.

B. Security--A hand grenade was thrown into the Royal Jordanian Airlines office in Nicosia on 21 March; there were no casualties, though property damage was done. Local police believe that the attack was perpetrated by Palestinians who oppose 'Arafat and Jordan. Responsibility was claimed by the Palestinian "Black September" organization, according to an AFP item filed by the bureau.

Later that afternoon, the Cyprus Broadcasting Corporation received an anonymous telephone call claiming that the U.S. Embassy in Nicosia would be the "next" target of an attack "today". Additional security precautions resulted, involving a tight cordon of manned roadblocks on all roads leading to the Embassy, which remained in place at month's end.

C. Reception Survey--Bureau cruising monitor and senior technician conducted a 48-hour reception survey at the new Cyprus Telecommunications Authority (CYTA) station at Lara, Paphos 13-15 March. Results favor the transfer of bureau's remote operation now situated at Kili to Lara; planning for that shift is now underway.

D. Beverage Antenna--Bureau has secured CYTA approval for the location of a new beverage antenna at CYTA's site in Pissouri, which would significantly improve reception of both Lebanese and Greek transmitters. Negotiations with CYTA on cost and procedures are in progress.

II. OPERATIONS

A. Monitorial/Editorial

1. AFP's announcement, filed by the bureau, of the death of leader Konstantin Chernenko generated a critic at Headquarters.

2. An internal crisis in Lebanese President Amin al-Jumayyil's Phalangist Party touched off a deterioration in the security situation in Lebanon when dismissed Phalangist official Samir Ja'Ja' proclaimed himself commander of an "uprising" within the Lebanese Forces. Fierce clashes ensued between the supporters and opponents of Ja'Ja' and his cohorts. The clandestine Radio Free Lebanon, the voice of the rightist hardliners in the Lebanese Forces, was suddenly unheard on 13 March after having reported favorably on the uprising. It resumed broadcasts on 14 March, announcing that its transmission had been interrupted by faults in equipment. The bureau kept a close watch on both RFL and the Phalangist Voice of Lebanon thereafter, providing radio behavior reports to MOD.

B. Technical

1. The Engineering section provided all the necessary technical support for a reception survey at Lara.
2. We responded to a call for help from ICA and repaired two of their Extel AH RO printers.
3. Two ARA model BBH-160 antennas were received from Washington.
4. One mains check set together with a chart recorder were bought locally for area use.

III. ADMINISTRATION

A. Personnel

1. The bureau has now offered employment as Arabic monitors to three Egyptians. Two are in processing in Cairo, and processing of the third in Paris is to begin shortly.
2. [redacted] departed 28 March to attend the Bureau Chief's Conference.
3. Editor [redacted] arrived 29 March on a 3-month training TDY.
4. Arabic/Hebrew Monitor [redacted] returned from a 1-month TDY at Tel Aviv Bureau 24 March.

B. Visitors

1. [redacted] deputy chief of Headquarter's Communications Section, visited the bureau 7-14 March.
2. [redacted] arrived TDY 31 March to provide bureau employees with 4 days' training in safehaven techniques.
